

CARSON DAILY APPEAL.

Vol. 2.

CARSON CITY, NEVADA, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1873.

No. 25.

The Carson Daily Appeal

Published every morning (Mondays excepted)

—BY—

ROBINSON & MICHIGLS

HENRY R. MICHIGLS, MARSHALL ROBINSON,
Publishers and Proprietors.

A daily newspaper, devoted to politics, general news, local affairs and the interests of its neighborhood.

Office—On Second street, opposite the Southern Front of the Capitol.

RESIGNED.—John P. Hickey, a Notary Public, habitant, Palisade, in Elko or Lander county (which is it?), resigned his office yesterday. His Excellency Governor Bradley accepted the same.

That item is from the Carson Appeal. For the benefit of those benighted individuals in and about the capital, and especially around the Appeal office, we will say that Palisade is neither in Lander or Elko. It forms a portion of the new county of Eureka.—Eureka Sentinel.

Very true, no doubt; but where will it be, say in a week from this time? County lines in the Great East are in such a continual and rapid state of transition that it is a very difficult matter to keep the cases correctly.

LEANDER QUINT has won his case, and Laura Fair must pay him his share of the price of saving her delicate waizen from the executioner's manilla. She will yet die by hanging—round the Courts. Dreadful bad girl is Laura. The next question in order is—will she see fit to become insane enough to kill the rapacious Quint?

EUREKA millionaires habitually wash their own socks just before going to bed and hang them on the nearest stove in order that they may be dry by morning. One of these frugal capitalists came near being smothered by the accidental burning of his stockings a night or two since. Queer place that Eureka.

BORN.

In Carson, April 7, to the wife of W. P. Kennedy, a daughter.

DIED.

At the White House, Clear Creek, April 4, 1873, ELIE CARSON, aged 19 years.
